WRIT APPEAL No. 2149 OF 2005

JUDGMENT : (Per Hon'ble Sri Bilal Nazki, ACJ)

Heard learned Counsel for the appellant.

The writ petitioner had concluded contracts with the respondents and payment had been made. Now, he has received a notice, in which it has been informed that an excess amount of Rs.2,53,260/- had been paid to him. This notice was challenged in the writ petition.

We feel that these are disputes relating to earlier contracts and this Court would not be in a position to look in to them. In any case, only a demand has been raised, and we do not think respondents have any right or mechanism to recover even if payment is not made. The writ petitioner-appellant may put forth his contention before respondents and/or take appropriate remedies that may be available to him in law.

Appeal is accordingly dismissed. No order as to costs.
